Jane's Story

Jane and her daughter had been homeless for three months. Upon joining us, we sat down and discussed her goals. Jane's main hope was to get her daughter Hailey into school so she can one day attend college

In order to achieve this we realized that she needed to earn a job so that she could secure a permanent residence in a good school district that Hailey could attend.

Within two years, Jane secured a job as a waitress and an apartment in the Auburn school district.
